School Notes Overview:

For over three-quarters of a century Miller-Motte has been a reputable leader in private career education. Judge Leon Motte founded the school in 1916 in Wilmington, North Carolina. The school provided the Wilmington legal community with a small training center for courtroom stenographers. Over the years the college established other campuses in Tennessee, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Georgia. The mission of Miller-Motte is to help students acquire the essential career and personal skills and knowledge necessary to secure initial employment in their chosen field. The College is located in the heart of Wake County at the corner of Walnut Street and Dillard Drive, just past the Cary Crossroads. The facilities provide classrooms, laboratories, library, student lounge, and offices in an attractive, fully furnished and air-conditioned setting.
